

DR. STEVE FLORISSON

(Dip Teach, B.Ed., M.Ed, PhD, Dip Train, Cert 4 TAE, Dip Comm Services, Dip VET, Dip TDD)

The CEO of Boarding Training Australia (RTO 40824). Steve's boarding experience ranges from a large, independent city boarding school, boarding programs tailored for Indigenous students and supporting Boarding staff in a broad range of locations. He commenced his boarding practice at Christchurch Grammar School in 1975, taught in the Pilbara, Kimberley, Goldfields and Esperance and was a Principal of boarding schools for 25 years.

JENNY FLORISSON

(Dip Teach, Cert IV TAE, Cert IV Comm Services, Dip VET, Dip TDD)

Taught in the Kimberley, Goldfields and Esperance and has extensive boarding experience, including co-managing a girls' boarding program and supporting Boarding staff in a broad range of locations.

BOARDING TRAINING AUSTRALIA

Steve and Jenny customized the CHC42015 Certificate IV in Community Services (Student Residential Care), and CHC50413 Diploma of Youth Work, to become specialized training for staff in the student residential care industry. In 2013 Steve and Jenny formed BTA (Boarding Training Australia RTO 40824) as a Registered Training Organisation. BTA is currently accredited to deliver and assess CHC42015 Certificate IV in Community Services, and CHC50413 Diploma of Youth Work, which they contextualise for the student boarding industry.
